VISA INFORMATION

Everyone entering India needs a visa, and which one depends on the passport you travel on (not on where you live). Please sort this out before booking flights.

US PASSPORT HOLDERS

You can apply online for an India e-Visa (e-Tourist Visa). It is quick and done entirely online.

1. Check your passport: it should have at least 6 months of validity and at least 2 blank pages.
2. Apply on the official Indian government e-Visa website (link below) and choose the e-Tourist Visa (30-day, 1-year or 5-year options are offered).
3. You can apply from 120 days to 4 days before you arrive. We suggest applying 3–4 weeks before the trip (for arrival on March 26, 2027, applications open in late November 2026).
4. Upload a recent passport-style photo (plain light background, square, JPEG) and a PDF scan of your passport photo page. Pay the fee online; the amount depends on your nationality and visa type and is shown on the site.
5. Print the approved e-Visa and carry it with your passport. Kochi (Cochin) airport is an approved port of entry for e-Visa holders.

CHINESE PASSPORT HOLDERS

The e-Visa is currently not available to Chinese passport holders, so you apply for a regular tourist visa. India resumed issuing tourist visas to Chinese nationals in 2025.

1. Check your passport: it should have at least 6 months of validity and at least 2 blank pages.
2. Fill in the online visa application form on the official Indian visa website (link below), then submit it with your passport and documents at the Indian Visa Application Centre (BLS) in China, or at the Indian embassy, consulate or authorised application centre where you live.
3. Chinese passport holders who are not permanent residents of the country they live in may be asked to apply in their home country. Please confirm with the Indian mission or visa centre first.
4. Requirements, fees and processing times change often and differ between centres. Please start early: we suggest applying at least 6 to 8 weeks before the trip.
5. Typical documents are your passport, a photo, the application form, and proof of your trip (flights and hotel). We are happy to provide an invitation letter and hotel details on request.

OTHER PASSPORTS

Rules depend on your nationality.

1. Check on the official e-Visa page whether your passport is on the list of eligible countries. If it is, follow the steps for US passport holders.
2. If it is not, contact the nearest Indian embassy or consulate. Feel free to reach out to us as well.

This is a general guide, checked on October 10, 2026. Visa rules can change, so please always confirm on the official websites above before you apply.

BOSTON (FOR OUR BROWN/RISD FRIENDS!) → KOCHI

Suggested multi-city routing

DEPARTURE 4:40 PM, Thu Mar 25

ARRIVAL 8:35 AM, Thu Apr 1 (New York)

NOTES There's no good direct-ish routing from Kochi back to Boston — every option involves either a long overnight layover or a very early (4 AM) departure out of Kochi. Instead, we'd recommend a multi-city itinerary: fly out of Boston, and return into New York. Search Google Flights for this multi-city itinerary. You'll want to plan your own onward travel from New York back to Boston/Providence.
